SCORE HIT IN LATEST OFFERING

Immense Gathering Pleased With Work of Local Fun Makers. Eagles' Hall was taxed to its capacity last night, the occasion being the annual offering of the A. B. C. Club, which presented musical satire. That the performance was worthy of the attendance was apparent from the comments passed upon the production both during and after the performance. The electrical effects under the personal direction of Frank J. Mayne were the latest devices in spot lights. When the curtain went up an old district school with the usual maps and caricatures of "our teacher" were disclosed. One of the maps disclosed the Bridgeport harbor with the New York. New Haven & Hartford railroad line adjoining and with a large sign close by with the figures 11-12, indicating the Common Council vote on the harbor question. The teacher's appearance on the scene happened to break up a game of "craps" which had started by some of the early arrivals. Eddie Madigan as a German teacher made a distinct hit with his dialect, a la Sam Bernard. It was then up to George Greenspun, the teacher's idol to call in the late arrivals which he did only after a rough of the argument.

After getting seated Thomas Driscoll opened the session with a well rendered song "In my Old Home," which was greeted with enthusiastic applause. Teacher Madigan then called the roll, which gave the scholars a chance to display their versatility as bluff;" H. Valentine as Henry Reilly remarked "Why girls leave home" and George Beitner as Eddie Buckingham, "I'm the Mayor." The opening selec-tions which found immediate favor witih the audience, were "Sunburnt Salome," "When I Marry You Whistle It." "I Am Auf'fly Strong for You," James Mahoney, one of the school visitors made a distinct hit with "I Never Knew What Love Was", Lester "L-O-V-E spells Trouble for Me," gave a monologue which brought down the house. ### REVEALS PAST IN HYPNOTIC SLEEP

STRANGE CASE OF CHARLES OS-TEN NOW AT GRACE HOS-PITAL IN NEW HAVEN.

New Haven, Jan. 20.-The life story of Charles Osten, the man of mystery at Grace Hospital, is coming up from his sub-consciousness more in detail with every hypnotic examination at the hands of Dr. Allan R. Diefendorf, the Yale medical school professor, who Parisian Sage is a discovery of a celebrated scientist, who spent the best has undertaken the task of taking a has undertaken the best had been been been best had been best had been been been been been best had been been been be mind which appeared a blank and filling it with the lost facts of the past. Osten was hypnotized again yesterday and he not only correporated and explained most of his past life in New York City, but he gave facts which explain the failure to make identification possible from statements wrested from him while on the operating table in hypnotic sleep.

Osten explained yesterday, in response to repeated questions, that he was not in Bellevue Hospital as a patient last year. He said that when he received his injury by falling down the elevator at Klein's lace curtain establishment, at the corner of Grand and Chrystie Streets, he was taken to his home in Forty-second street, a surgical operation was performed on his skull by a doctor in Sixth avenue, whose exact address Osten could not give, and that, as his head failed to recover, he went to Bellevue Hospi-tal, as an out-patient. He says that he attended the nerve clinic, but he is unable to recall the names of the doctors who attended him there. In the cross-questioning in the hypnotic state, the family of Osten's wife, Minnie, were investigated. He said that Minnie was the daughter of "Old man" Elrich, or Oelrich, who lived in Hoboken. The family head was a

said, and he had no children except Minnie. The father and mother are now dead, according to Osten. The story Osten told makes it clear been started by his fall down the elevator at Klein's. He says that he started from New York city with about $25 in his pockets, that as he walked the of the robbers to get his watch, his pocketbook was stolen and everything

HANDS AND FEET ITCHED 12 YEARS

Suffered Terribly from Eczema which Made Hands and Feet Swell, Peel and Get Raw - Arms Affected Too - Gave Up Hope of Cure.

"I suffered from eczema on my hands, arms and feet for about twelve years, my hands and feet would swell, sweat and itch, then would become callous and get very dry, then peel off and get raw. I tried most every kind of salve and ointment without success, only got temporary relief. As soon as I would leave off using them I would be as bad as ever. I tried several doctors, took arsenic for two years and at last gave up thinking there was a cure for eczema. A friend of mine insisted on my trying the Cuticura Remedies but, supposing they were the same as other 'cures' I had tried, I did not give them a trial until I got so bad that I had to do something. I secured a cake of Cudo something. I secured a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent and by the time they were used I could see a vast improvement and my hands and feet were healed up in no time. I used several bottles of Cuticura Resolvent. This was over a year ago and have had no trouble since. I think I am entirely cured. Charles T. Bauer, R.F.D. 65, Volant, Pa., Mar. 11, 1908.
